

PIGEON FORGE

T E N N E S S E E

Pigeon Forge Offers New Reasons To Use Vacation Days in 2019

Family-friendly destination ready to prevent millions of vacations days from going to waste.

PIGEON FORGE, Tennessee (March 19, 2019)—According to the latest research*, 705 million vacation days go unused annually in the U.S. The city of Pigeon Forge (Tennessee) has several new reasons for workers to spend those hard-earned vacation days in the family-friendly destination located in the Great Smoky Mountains.

“What better way to spend vacation days than with family and friends, sharing great times and memories,” said Pigeon Forge Department of Tourism Executive Director Leon Downey. “With the wide variety of attractions and entertainment that Pigeon Forge offers for all ages, including lots of new ones this year, folks should get their calendars out now and start planning to come see us!”

Pigeon Forge always delivers on the promise of something new for visitors to see and do each year, and 2019 is no exception.

Dollywood theme park’s Wildwood Grove, opening this May, features 11 new experiences for guests, six of which are ride attractions, including a suspended family roller coaster called the Dragonflier as well as a 55-foot-tall Wildwood Tree, live entertainment, the Till & Harvest restaurant, and various indoor and outdoor play areas including Hidden Hollow, a 4,000-square-foot indoor play space. Dollywood.com

The Island, a retail, dining, lodging and entertainment complex, has added Yee-Haw Brewing Company, a production brewery and taproom that offers ales and lagers, including Yee-Haw’s World Beer Cup award-winning Dunkel, as well as seasonal and high-gravity beers. Visitors also can enjoy the Spinning Parrots family coaster; RideMakerz, an immersive remote-control car customizing experience; and the Savannah Bee Company which sells specialty honey and honey-based products. TheIsland

Paula Deen’s Lumberjack Feud Show is the centerpiece of the new Lumberjack Square, which also is home to Paula Deen’s Lumberjack Feud Adventure, a ropes course, extreme zipline, roller coaster, an 80-foot-tall jump tower, a multi-level lumberjack-themed adventure park and an aerial kids’ playground. The show features 11 competitive lumberjack events including axe throwing, chopping, sawing, speed climbing, and log rolling in a 350-seat climate-controlled outdoor venue where world-class lumberjacks square off daily from spring through December. LumberjackFeud

The National Enquirer Attraction opens May 24, 2019, and will feature 90 years of history in more than 20,000 square feet of display space. Guests will have the opportunity to learn the story behind the story as told through more than 100 interactive exhibits with state-of-the-art technology, including the Paparazzi Camera, Human Kaleidoscope, Live the Life of a Celebrity, Create Your Own Front Page, Dance with Your Favorite Celebrity and more. National Enquirer Live

PINK Adventure Tours is a premier off-road adventure company founded more than 60 years ago. What started as America's first Jeep® tour will offer unforgettable excursions and up-close encounters with the beauty and splendor of the Great Smoky Mountains. PINK® Jeep® Wranglers are customized from top to bottom to provide unique off-road capabilities. www.SmokyMountainTours.com

The new Rocky Top Mountain Coaster sits on more than 20 acres and takes riders on a nine-minute journey that traverses multiple 360-degree turns, four tunnels, thrilling curves, and daring hairpin turns, all propelled by four uplifts and four drops, allowing it to reach a maximum speed of 30 miles per hour. Able to accommodate riders as young as three years of age (with minimum height requirement), it is another family attraction.

Other attractions opening this summer include Titanic Museum Attraction's collection of Titanic lifejackets, the world's largest ever assembled since the ship's maiden voyage. Only 12 lifejackets are known to exist, and beginning July 1, seven from collectors worldwide will be on display through November 2019 in Pigeon Forge for the first time in history. TitanicMuseumAttraction

The 200-foot-tall Mountain Monster three-in-one thrill ride anchors the Tower Shops at Mountain Mile, a 180,000-square-foot multi-purpose retail, dining and family entertainment development that spans 174 acres. Mountain Monster, opening this summer, will offer guests a drop ride, a dive ride and a swing, all in one attraction. MountainMilePigeonForge.com.

Uncle Lem's Outfitters, a soon-to-open 4,580-square-foot retail space, supports and encourages a love of the great outdoors by supplying enthusiasts with the necessary gear. Uncle Lem's takes advantage of the area's natural setting and plans to offer the services of hiking, fishing, bicycling, and outdoor adventure guides. It will open with paddle board and kayak rentals with bicycle rentals to follow.

Pirates Voyage Dinner & Show, a Dolly Parton Company, will be located adjacent to The Island in Pigeon Forge in a 21,000-square-foot arena. Crimson and Sapphire pirates battle on deck, in the water, and in the sky above their full-sized ships in a 15-foot-deep indoor lagoon. The show also includes a four-course pirate feast.

Pigeon Forge offers more than 14,500 overnight accommodations, ranging from hotels and condos to cabins and campgrounds. Joining the lineup this year are the 200-room Ramsey Hotel & Convention Center; the 108-room Fairfield Inn & Suites; and the 102-room Tru by Hilton. The family-friendly vacation destination's food scene also expands to include Puckett's Grocery & Restaurant (2480 Parkway), home to Southern hospitality and culinary favorites; Wild Bear Tavern (4236 Parkway), serving authentic German cuisine three times daily; Teaffle (2656 Parkway), offering dessert-filled made-to-order bubble waffles and a variety of fruit and milk teas; Gacho Urbano Brazilian Steakhouse (111 Valley Drive), the city's first traditional Brazilian steakhouse with churrasco-style dining; and Brick and Spoon (136 Community Center Dr.), where hearty Southern breakfast, brunch and lunch fare is on the menu.

For more information about what's new for 2019 as well as existing favorites, please visit MyPigeonForge.com or call 1-800-251-9100.

*Research from the U.S. Travel Association's ProjectTimeOff.com.

#

About Pigeon Forge:

Pigeon Forge is located in East Tennessee, approximately 35 miles from Knoxville and McGhee-Tyson Airport. Two-thirds of the nation's population east of the Mississippi River lives within a day's drive, making it an easily accessible family vacation destination. The city's neighbor is Great Smoky Mountains National Park, the most-visited national park in the U.S. It also is home to Dolly Parton's Dollywood theme park, Tennessee's most-visited ticketed attraction. More information about all aspects of Pigeon Forge are available at MyPigeonForge.com or toll-free at 1-800-251-9100.

Images are available for download here.

Media Contact:

Trish McGee

on behalf of the Pigeon Forge Dept. of Tourism

tmcgee@bohanideas.com

615-327-1189 ext. 327